DEDICATION

To the United Nations in their struggle against tyranny, and to the establishment of peace and unity among all nations in the not-too-distant future, we, the class of '44, dedicate this yearbook.

1944

The Comet

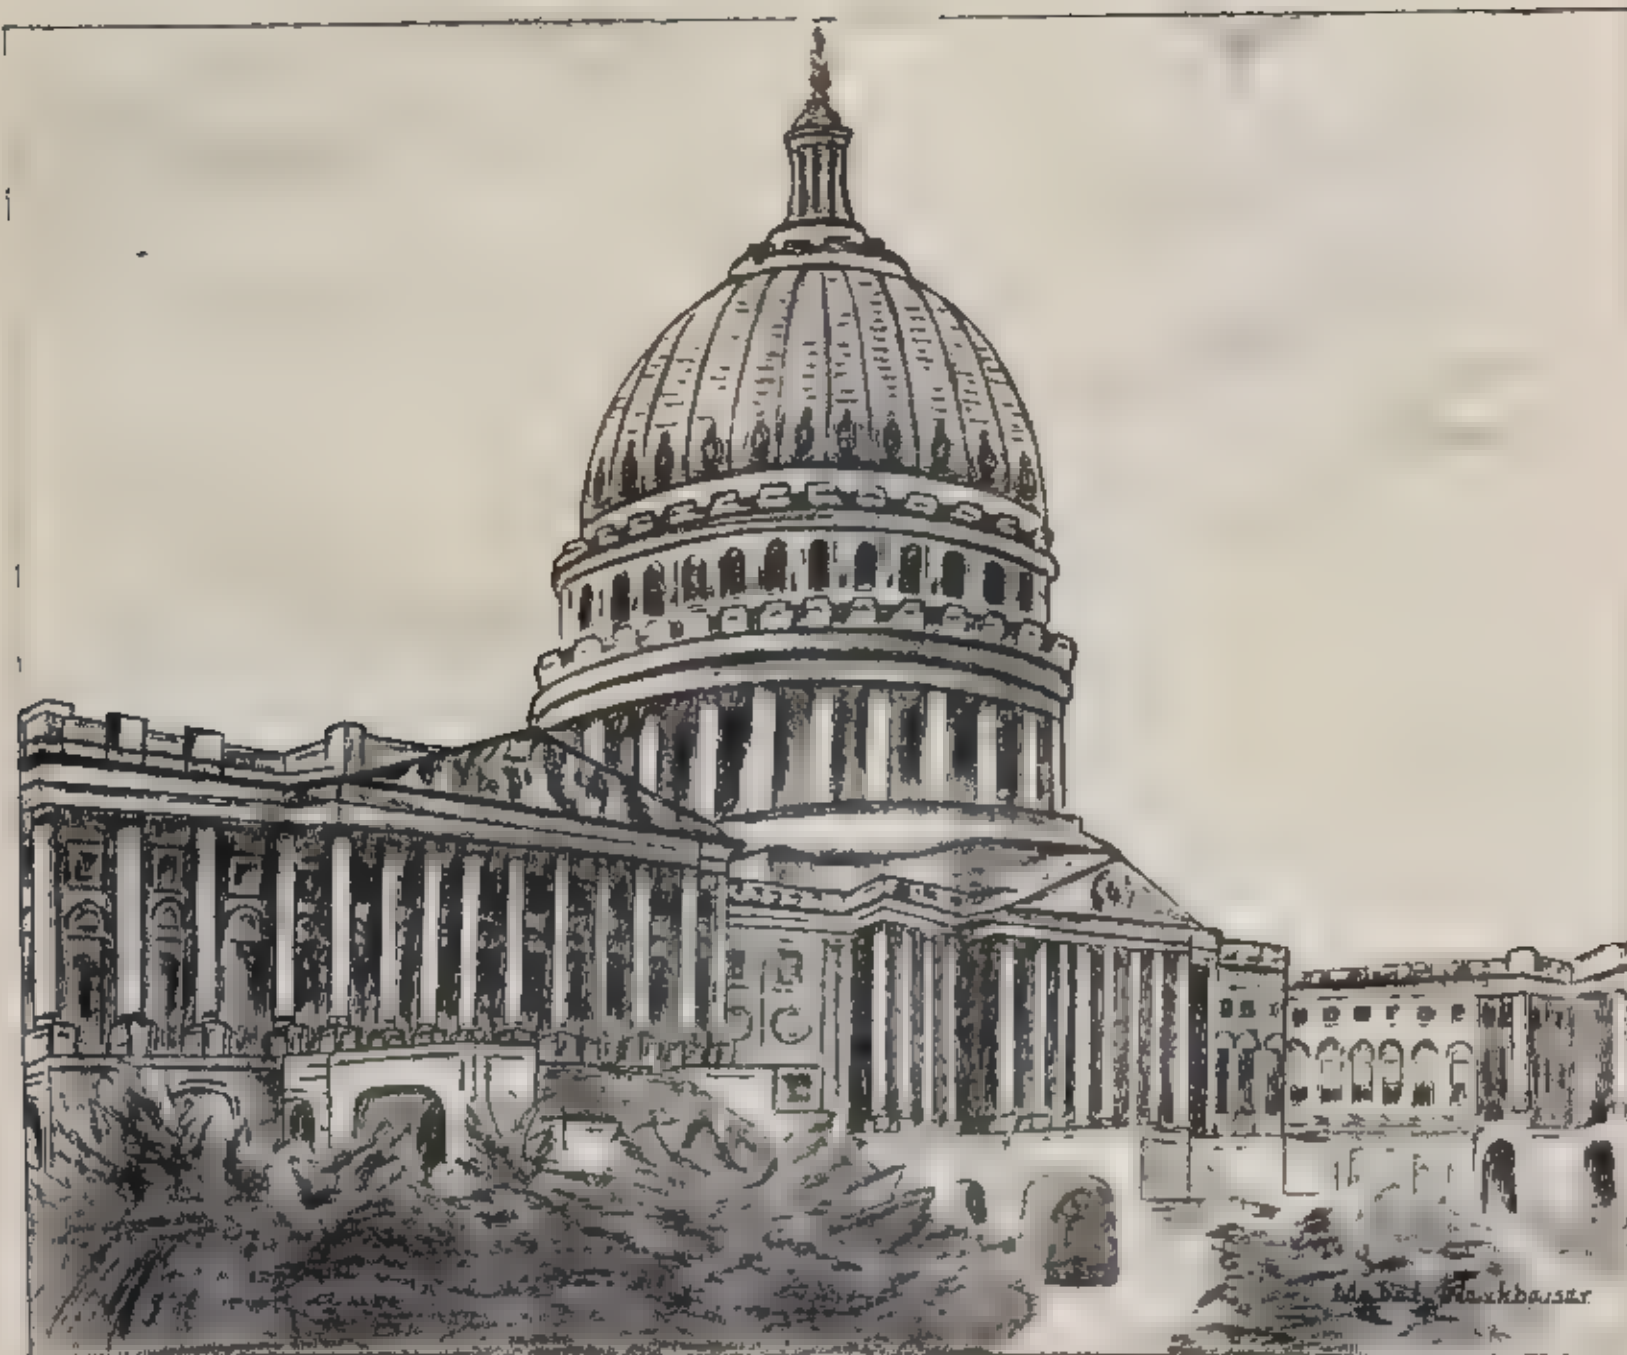

Alma Mater

In the old historic Nazareth
'Gainst the rising sun
Stands our loved Alma Mater
Pride of days to come.
Here with daily tasks we struggle
With our goal in sight
Ever mindful of our brothers
And the Blue and White.

By thy name, dear Alma Mater
We shall win the fight;
And for us, thy sons and daughters,
Days will e'er be bright
Nazareth High, to thee we're pledging
All our main and might—
Never shall dishonor cloud thee
Nor the Blue and White!

Spice

We the class of '44
Do dedicate our brains, no more;
Our eyes, our mouths, oh no
Because they're always on the go.
The juniors accept our brains with glee
Because their own are gone, you see;
They left them in their freshman year;
They thought they didn't need them here.

Marjorie Griffin

Our Challenge

The future stares us in the face;
It holds a challenge vast
To work and plan to be secure
And profit by the past.

Unnecessary, cruel wars,
And destruction reign today;
Pain, shock, worry, and death
Point a backward way.

A lasting peace must be our goal
And we cannot falter now
To rid the world of savage wars
This is our solemn vow.

With peace a new world is to come
In which advancement rules;
Medicines to fight disease
Aeroplanes and schools.

Trade and commerce develop fully
Between all nations, free,
Will bring a lasting fellowship
With lands across the sea.

Peace is still our sacred end
No matter race or class;
The future holds a challenge vast;
We cannot let it pass.

MARIAN ANN AUCH

"Marian"

Tiny, sedate, with a big smile and a pleasing personality - that's Marian. Although she's rather small, she does get around on the gym floor and is known as an all-round good sport. Besides being a good student, Marian served well as one of the Comet photographers. Belfast seems to hold a special attraction for her.

Class, Asst. Secretary and Treasurer 2; Comet, Photography Editor 3, Prom Decorating Committee 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Baseball 1, 2; Volley Ball 2, 3; Hockey 2, 3; Science Club 2

SHERWOOD HOWARD ASHENFALDER

"Sherwood"

Now serving in the armed forces

Crash! Bang! There goes Sherwood trying to solve a problem in Consumer Science class. His work in the Chemistry Lab at the Penn Dixie prevented him from participating in many school activities but he certainly could hold his own in P. D. class. Sherwood is now serving in Uncle Sam's Navy.

Forum Club 3

CONSTANCE IRENE BARTHOLOMEW

"Bun"

Meet the Editor-in-Chief of the Comet. Because of 'Bun's' artistic ability, she introduced many new ideas into our yearbook and helped to make it a success. She also enjoys playing the piano and reading. Upon graduation, "Bun" is going to study advertising in college.

Comet, Editor-in-Chief 3; Senior Play, Business Committee 3, Blue and White 1, Glee Club 3, Music Festival 2; Athletic Association, Treasurer 3; Volley Ball 1; Baseball 1; Science Club, Secretary 2; Magazine Campaign 1, Assistant Manager 2, Manager 3

RAY WAGNER BARTHOLOMEW

"Razor"

This slim lad hails from Tatamy. "Razor" seems to be a very quiet boy, but to those who know him, he has a sense of humor. Although he is not too studious, he does enough to get by. His favorite hobbies are hunting and fishing.

LARUE LOUISE BATH

"Larue"

Do, Re, Mi. Yes, it's LoRue practicing a song for either A Cappella Choir, Glee Club, or the Belfast trio. She was "June" in the Operetta and one of the trio in last year's Music Festival. This pleasant and jolly lassie takes to music as a duck to water, but what about chemistry, LoRue? One of her favorite pastimes is dancing.

Glee Club 1, 2, 3; A Cappella Choir 2, 3; Senior Play, Usher 3; Music Festival 2

MARY JACQUELINE BEALER

"Jackie"

It's Jackie herself! Jackie's sense of humor and cheerful disposition account for her many friends. Her idea of spending a delightful evening is going dancing, especially with a certain "Corporal." She has a keen interest in her commercial studies and served as personality writer for the Comet. Although she is an honor student, she tells us she'd like to join the WAVES. Confidentially, we don't believe it!

Class, Secretary 1, Vice President 2; Commercial Club 2, President 3; Forum Club 3; Comet, Personality Writer 3; Senior Play, Business Staff 3

ELEANOR JANE BECKER

"Eleanor"

If there's laughing going on, Becker is sure to be in the group! Frequently she can be seen participating in the selling of stamps and bonds for the Victory Corps. Not only is Eleanor a faithful member of our school band, but she can do her stuff on the basketball floor as well. Someday she hopes to become an efficient secretary.

Band 1, Secretary 2, 3; Commercial Club 2; Basketball 1, 2, Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Comet, Typist 3

EDITH CLAIRE BEERS

"Archie"

"Hey, girls!" Sounds as if Edith has heard some more jokes which she's about to relate to her classmates. Most giggling in study periods can be traced to Edith, but she finds time enough for her school work to be on the honor roll. Her interests in business were displayed by her loyalty to the business staff of the Comet.

Basketball 1, 2, 3; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Blue and White 3; Comet 3; Student Librarian 2, 3

The Comet

ROBERT PAUL BERGER

"Bob"

Bob, one of the smaller boys in the senior class, finds his size no handicap to him. Even in class basketball, he is always ready to sink the ball at a decisive moment. Trouble comes as second nature to Bob, but he usually gets out of it by some means or other. His theory is that homework is unnecessary, although, under pressure, he manages to get it done.

Basketball 1, 2, 3

FRANK JOSEPH BETZ

"Betzie"

Where did all that "steam" come from? Oh, it's "Betzie," just having a good time again telling stories. Teasing the girls is another one of his delights, although he does take the consequences sometimes. We don't think he will ever have a nervous breakdown from hard work. In the future "Betzie" aims to give his friends shocks since he wants to be an electrician in the navy.

WILSON HENRY BUCK

"Bucky"

"Bucky" came to us in his junior year. He is a cub reporter for The Morning Call, and through this has become a keen follower of all sports and sports activities. That "Bucky" is a good basketball player is proved by the number of points he racks up for the 'Y Junior Varsity.

Basketball 3

ROY FRANCIS BURALLI

"Pete"

"Like fun it is!" This is the expression which "Pete" uses most frequently. Very quick to take up his end of an argument, he seldom is the first one to admit defeat. He enjoys all outdoor sports and can otherwise be identified by the green '39 Ford which he drives. An aviation cadet, Roy hopes to join the air corps in July.

Senior Play, Costume Committee 3; Band 1; Glee Club 1
A Cappella 1; Operetta 1; Music Festival 2

PEARL LOVINNIA BUTZ

"Butzy"

Blue eyes, blonde hair, and a pleasant smile best describe Pearl. Pearl does not participate in any school activities, but she works at Murphy's every afternoon after school and also every Saturday. Homework always prepared on time, good grades, a job, and a boy friend all help to keep Pearl busy.

GEORGENE ALICE COWLING

"George"

Mary of Through the Keyhole is, in reality, only "George", another of our Bath girls. Outside of her Irish temper and her ability to blush at the slightest mention of the word "Sarge," she is quite popular with her fellow students. Her participation in sports and other school activities does not interfere with her school work.

Hockey 1, 2; Volley Ball 1, Captain 2; Basketball 1, 2, Captain 3; Baseball 2, 3; Dramatic Club 2; Magazine Campaign 3; Student Librarian 3; Comet, Personality Writer 3; Senior Play Major 3

ROBERT STEPHEN CREAMER

"Creamer"

Meet "Alibi Ike" who resides at Cherry Hill. "Creamer," our excellent excuse maker, is always ready to give someone a line whenever the opportunity arises. To him lessons are a burden and he'd rather spend his time hunting or fishing. Although he has his quiet moments, he usually is the cause of the disturbance in the rear of room 29.

Radio Club 3

GLADYS MAY CUMBERLAND

"Gladys"

Brown hair, green eyes and a cheery smile—these characteristics spell Gladys. Although she enjoys the quiet side of life she's no mean opponent on the gym floor. She is keenly interested in her commercial work and is a member of the Commercial Club. Gladys hopes to work in an office someday—that is, if Bob doesn't change her mind.

Commercial Club 3, Blue and White, Typist 3; Baseball 2, 3

The Comet

DOMINIC LEOPOLD DANIELE

"Daniels"

"That was a good joke but I can tell a better one." Just "Daniels" preparing to tell his latest rib-tickler. This chap can always find something to talk about, especially during the noon hour. His favorite pastime is sleeping. After school and on Saturdays, he can be found working in one of the garages in Bath.

JOHN DOROZOWSKI

"John"

Meet the 1943 football captain! In this capacity John displayed excellent leadership. Although rather quiet around girls, there's one particular senior to whom he is much attracted. John intends to enter the Navy immediately after graduation.

Basketball 1, 2, 3, Baseball 1; Football 2, Captain 3

DOMENICK ANTHONY FERARRO

"Wassie"

"Wassie" is not very fond of school, but he does enjoy pulling practical jokes on his friends. Domenick likes to listen to sport programs on the radio and will argue for hours about the "Athletics." "Wasie" spends most of his time up at the Y. M. C. A.

Basketball 1, 2

ELLIS ELWOOD FRABLE

Ellis"

At first glance, Ellis appears to be one of the quiet type, but when one knows him better, one soon has a different opinion of him. The consistency with which his name appears on the high honor roll goes to show what hard work and determination can accomplish. His greatest enjoyment is to walk or ride on his bike through the open country and view nature at its best.

HELEN MARY FRAN CZAK

"Helen"

Giggle, giggle, giggle! Yes, that's Helen coming down the hall. Despite her giggles, Helen is a good student for her name frequently appears on the honor roll. She is one of the Comet typists and hopes to make typing her profession. However, one of last year's graduates may change her mind

Commercial Club 2, 3; Comet, Typist 3; Volley Ball 1, 3, Captain 2; Baseball 2; Hockey 3; Magazine Campaign 1

ROBERT HOWARD FULMER

"Bob"

This tall lad with light brown hair and blue eyes can be found after school and Saturdays at the local Five and Ten busily sweeping floors, washing windows, or unpacking boxes. School, in Bob's estimation, is a place where people should go to gain knowledge and keep out of trouble; however, he doesn't always follow his own theory. Bob hopes to be a machinist after graduation.

ALBERT EDWIN HELUCK GAUMER

"Professor"

There goes our streak of lightning again. Oh yes, it's Albert going down to do stage work for the senior play or an operetta. Besides this, "Professor" enjoys collecting biology specimens for his aquarium. He takes his lessons seriously and expects to become a biology teacher

Science Club 1, 2; Dramatic Club 1, 2; Glee Club 1, 2, A Cappella Choir 1, 2, 3; Operetta 1, 2, 3; Prom, Decorating Committee 2; Senior Play, Stage Committee 3; Comet, Associate Editor 3

BETTY LORRAINE GOLD

"Goldie"

Blonde hair, sparkling blue eyes, and a friendly smile—it's no other than "Goldie." A swell pal and friend, she takes great interest in music and sports. She was also on the stage committee for the senior play. "Goldie" aims to be one of those women in white

Class, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer 3; Comet, Photography Editor 3; Senior Play, Property Committee 3; Glee Club 3; Basketball 2, 3; Volley Ball 2, 3; Hockey 2, 3; Baseball 2, 3. Science Club 2; Prom, Refreshment Committee 2

The Comet

MARJORIE RIVERS GRIFFIN

"Griffie"

Here's one of the three Associate Editors of the Comet. Blonde bangs, blue eyes, and a cheery smile have won "Griffie" many friends. Although "Griffie" seems to be quiet, she is a great giggler, isn't she, Keppel? She is planning to attend a southern college.

Comet, Associate Editor 3; Blue and White, Business Staff 2, 3; Dramatic Club 2, 3; Science Club 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Student Librarian 2, 3; Prom, Decorating Committee 2; Senior Play, Usher 3, Operetta, Usher 3

BETTY MAE HAHN

"Hahnle"

"Hahnle," one of the four Betty's in chemistry class, helps to produce bedlam in the chem lab. In all sports she's small but mighty and helps her team on to victory. She is a member of the Business Staff of the Comet. There's a diamond on her left hand. Could it tie up with a soldier in England?

Comet, Business Staff 3; Dramatic Club 1, 2; Senior Play, Property Committee 3; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3

STANLEY OLIVER HAHN

"Hahnle"

Blue eyes, blond hair, and ruddy complexion describe our business manager of the Comet to a T. Stanley works hard and he is very cooperative. He was a reliable member of the Student Council first semester. His hobbies are horseback riding and teasing girls. No doubt "Hahnle" will be an efficient businessman in the future.

Comet, Business Manager 3; Dramatic Club 2; Student Council 3; Senior Play, Property Committee 3

VIOLET LILLIE HAHN

"Violet"

Looks are deceiving, as in the case of Violet, for this quiet young lady can giggle at the smallest incident. She is serious though, when it comes to her commercial subjects. Although she takes little interest in sports, she is a faithful member of the Commercial Club.

Blue and White, Typist 3; Commercial Club 2, 3.

VERNON FRANCIS HAPPEL

"Whoozie"

One of the class teases, spiced with an added giggle, is "Whoozie." Vernon works in his dad's store out in Stockertown. Outside of this he's kept quite busy taking care of a certain dark haired senior. During this coming summer Happel intends to work on a farm, and then this fall plans to enlist in the Navy

Senior Play, Property Committee 3

CLAIRE ELIZABETH HAYNE

"Claire"

Hoppy-go-lucky Claire can usually be heard whistling a tune, for whistling is one of her accomplishments. She takes an interest in everything but schoolwork. Her cheerful disposition has won her many friends. We hear she's quite a "hit" at Fairmonts in Both. What's the secret, Claire???

HARVEY WILLIAM HECKMAN

"Heckman"

An ever present smile is Harvey's greeting to everyone. "Never a worry, never a care" is his motto and he certainly follows it. His favorite activities are ice skating and hiking. He has shown his ability as a leader by being assistant scout master of his troop. "Heckman's" ultimate goal is to be a pilot in the air corps.

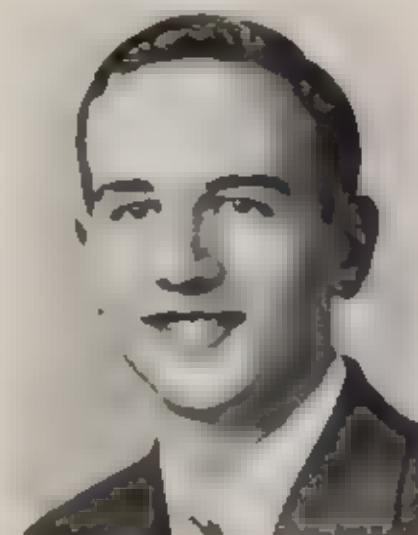

Student Council 1; A Cappella Choir 3; Operetta 3; Basketball 3; Baseball Varsity 1, 2

JOSEPH HAWK HEINEY

"Heinie"

"Heinie" is a happy-go-lucky chap liked by everyone. Believe it or not, "Heinie's" hobby is snakes! His matter-of-fact way of telling a joke or a story makes either more effective. He did well as William, the butler, in the senior play, Through the Keyhole. What's the attraction in Pen Argyl, "Heinie"?

Class, Vice President 3; Senior Play, Major 3; Oratorical Contest 2; Glee Club 1, 2; A Cappella Choir 1, 2, 3; Operetta 1, 3; Music Festival 2; Tennis Tournament 1; Forum Club 2, 3; Radio Club 3; Dramatic Club 2; Science Club 1, 2

SAMUEL JUNIOR HENRY

"Sam"

"You take the x under the radical sign, multiply by 35 to the fifth power and divide by Yx ." It's only Sam trying to explain his own method of doing a difficult problem in advanced algebra. This medium sized boy from Crossroads is really a mathematical wizard. Bicycling and scouting are two of his favorite activities. Oh, yes, where do you go every Monday and Friday nights after Civil Air Patrol meetings, Sam?

Class, Vice President 3, A Cappella Choir 3, Operetta 3, Track 1

ROBERT HAROLD HERTZOG

"Bobby"

Bobby is one of the quiet boys of the senior class. This lad from Cherry Hill is quite an authority on hunting and fishing. Some day he may become a poultry raiser. He's also interested in the sophomore class.

LEROY DONALD HOCKING

"Piggy"

Always in another world, "Piggy" seems to enjoy day dreaming. Before and after school he works at the drug store and maybe this accounts for his dreaminess. He also seems to enjoy school even if it is only to have a good time. In the future he intends to become a radar man in Uncle Sam's Navy.

Baseball 1

PAULINE ISABELL HORDENDORF

"Polly"

"Vanilla, orange ice, and strawberry—sorry, no chocolate today," explains "Polly" to her customers at Fairmount's. Although rather quiet, "Polly" can hold her own when called upon to do so. She's always well groomed and friendly to everyone and should be very successful in the future as a hairdresser.

Dramatic Club 1; Glee Club 2, 3, A Cappella Choir 3; Operetta 3; Basketball 1; Hockey 1; Volley Ball 1, 2; Baseball 1; Forum Club 2; Senior Play, Usher 3

ELIZABETH IRENE HOUCK

"Betty"

Light brown hair, brown eyes, and a pleasing smile— all these make up the sum total of this petite miss from Upper Belfast, who can usually be seen with her pet "Eppie." Betty dashes up the hall and into room 29 just one minute before the buzzer rings each morning. She likes music class, swimming, and housework, but detests school work. In the future she wants to be another Florence Nightingale.

RUBY JUNE HOUGH

"Houghie"

Here's another of our cheerleaders. "Houghie" enjoys all kinds of sports and is an excellent basketball guard. She is a Co-Editor of the Blue and White Standard and has done much to help make it a success. "Houghie's" particular interest is a tall blond senior.

Class, Treasurer 2; Secretary 3; Blue and White 1, Associate Editor 2, Co Editor 3; Prom, Decorating Committee 2, May Festival, Usher 2; Baseball 1, 3, Basketball 1, 2, Captain 3; Volley Ball 1, 3, Captain 2; Hockey 2, 3, Captain 1; Science Club 1; Cheerleader 2, 3; Student Librarian 1, 2

RICHARD LEWIS HUTH

"Huthie"

Now serving in the armed forces.

Anchors aweigh! Yes, Dick's in the navy now and he's greatly missed at N. H. S. His good humor and smiles should lighten many a task for him. His training in our A Cappella Choir serves him well now as a member of the Navy Choir. Dick always enjoyed playing tennis and was a great football enthusiast.

Glee Club 1, 2; A Cappella Choir 1, Librarian 2, Class Basketball 1, 2, Science Club 2

MILDRED MARTHA KEEFER

"Mildred"

This blonde miss hails from Bath. Mildred is a pleasant, serious but quiet girl. She is a commercial student and a member of the Commercial Club. Working at Murphy's every Saturday plus dates keep Mildred quite busy.

Hockey 1; Commercial Club 3

The Comet

SHELTON PAUL KELLER

"Keller"

Although he's rather quiet in most of his classes, Keller isn't silent when it comes to athletics. Shelton was quite an end on the 1943 football team. He is going to play first base for a Phillies farm team this summer. Shelton's main interests are sports and a certain junior from room 33.

Class, Vice President 2, Secretary 2, Treasurer 3; Glee Club 2, 3, A Cappella Choir 2, 3; Operetta 3; Football, Varsity 1, 2, 3, Baseball 1; Basketball 1, 2; Prom, Entertainment Committee 2

STEPHEN CARL KEPPEL

"Baron Jr."

Broad shoulders, dark complexion, athletic ability, and a wolfish whistle that's "Steve." After school he's either down in the gym participating in some sport or else he's escorting a certain blonde senior home. Since his lessons aren't his greatest worry, "Baron Jr." spends considerable time at the Stage Door Canteen in Wilson.

Oratorical Contest 3, Senior Play, Usher 3, Prom, Entertainment Committee 2; Football 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Baseball 1; Forum Club 2, 3; Radio Club 3; Science Club 1, 2

BETTIE MERWINE KERN

"Kernie"

Who's that dark haired, lively little soul from Room 25? It's none other than "Kernie," who is remembered as Genevieve in Through the Keyhole. Bettie takes great interest in sports, especially roller skating. She did her bit for the Comet as a personality writer. "Kernie's" romantic interests, however, stray from Nazareth.

Senior Play, Major 3; Comet, Personality Writer 3; Glee Club 1, 2; A Cappella Choir 3; Operetta 3; Music Festival 2; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Hockey 1, 2; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Blue and White 2; Commercial Club 2

ELEANOR ELMIRA KNECHT

"Knecht"

Giggle, giggle! Yes, it's LaRue and Eleanor in chemistry class. Dark hair, brown eyes, and a pleasant smile all help to describe Eleanor. She goes out for sports and despite her shortness, can really get around on the gym floor. "Knecht" hopes some day to be another of those women in white.

Glee Club 2, 3; A Cappella Choir 2, 3; Music Festival 2; Operetta 3; Baseball 1, 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Hockey 1; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Craft Club 1

ROBERT DONALD KRIEGER

"Bob"

Bob has made a name for himself as a member of the varsity basketball team. Sinking the ball with his one-handed push-ups, this lad ended the season as second highest scorer. Besides basketball, he likes bowling and occasionally, a game of pool. Bob's favorite greeting, "Hi, Old Man," is his identification tag. What is the attraction at Wilson, Bob?

Student Council, President 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Football 2 Senior Play, Usher 3; Prom, Decorating Committee 2, Senior Play Stage Committee 1

GLADYS HELEN LAHR

"Gladys"

This brown-haired miss hails from Bushkill Center. Her ambition is to become a nurse. Gladys' pleasantness and dependability plus her humor have made her a friend to all. "Off Boys," is her latest policy. What's the reason, Gladys?

Baseball 2, 3, Commercial Club 2, 3

JOHN MICHAEL LANDON

"Mike"

"Now Grandma, you know you shouldn't do that." It's just "Mike" rehearsing his lines for Through the Keyhole. As president of the senior class and of Student Council, John was a very conscientious worker and a good leader. Even though he always seems to be sleepy, he can be wide awake and full of fun, once he gets started.

Band, Color Guard 2, 3; Class, Secretary 2, President 3 Senior Play, Major 3; Student Council, President 3

VIRGINIA CATHERINE LEHR

"Ginny"

Meet one of the senior class singers! "Ginny" was one of the soloists in last year's Music Festival. Besides being our second semester's class president, she's fond of sports and is a good basketball guard. "Ginny" plans to attend college upon graduation.

Student Council 3; Class, President 3; Comet, Music Editor 3, Prom, Entertainment Committee 2; Blue and White 1, Business Manager 2, 3, Glee Club 1, 2, 3; A Cappella Choir 1, 2, 3; Operetta 1, 3; Music Festival 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3, Hockey 1, 2, 3; Baseball 1, 2

The Comet

RUSSELL EDWARD LERCH

"Lerchie"

Although one of the smallest fellows in the class, Lerchie's brain isn't too small. He passes all his subjects easily even if it does take him a little longer to complete tests. Every night after school he can be seen hurrying down Main Street in order to get home early to do his chores.

Radio Club 3; Basketball 3.

JUANITA JESLYEN LEVAN

"Jessie"

Here's another of our chatterboxes. "Jessie" likes sports and participates in hockey, volley ball, and basketball. She can always be found with Doris, her pal. "Jessie" spends time after school and Saturdays working at Murphy's.

Class, Secretary 1, 3; Dramatic Club 1, 2; Blue and White 1, 2, 3; Hockey 1, 2, 3; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Forum Club 3; Prom, Decorating Committee 2

MARJORIE ELIZABETH LONG

"Margie"

A merry giggle issues from the rear of a study hall; "Margie" is at it again. She is very active in sports but she dislikes studying. "Margie" says she would like to be a nurse. We think, however, some other interest will come first.

Basketball 1, Captain 2, 3; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Hockey 1, 2, 3

LILLIAN MAUDE MACKES

"Lil"

"Lil" is a chubby lassie who hails from East Lawn. She is a serious, hard-working girl, but she always manages a broad smile for all her friends. She spends much of her time working at Murphy's and writing letters to one of Uncle Sam's soldiers.

Glee Club 3; A Cappella Choir 1; Operetta 1; Music Festival 2; Volley Ball 1

FRANK JOSEPH MAROSITZ

"Frank"

At first glance, Frank appears to be a quiet and serious lad, but once started, he's just like a phonograph. Although not fond of school, he lists hunting as his favorite activity. In the future he hopes to be a mechanic.

Radio Club, Secretary 3; Science Club 1; Basketball 1, 2

VICTORIA IRENE MARSH

"Vicky"

Quiet, cheerful and efficient, Vicky proves to be everybody's pal. Whenever a question pops up concerning the business world, everyone runs to Vicky, for she usually knows the answer. Lessons are not her only interest, for she was a manager for the girls' volley ball team and is on the typing staff of the Blue and White and the Comet.

CHARLES CHARLES MARTH

"Charlie"

"Charlie" usually appears quiet and contented, but once he knows a person, he is constantly making wisecracks. This Stockertown chap brought a friendly smile and a cheerful hello with him, but little energy to do his lessons.

Basketball 1, 2; Radio Club 3; Science Club 2

ARLENE MAY MILLER

"Arlene"

Small, quiet, but ambitious is Arlene. She is very much interested in sports, but this has no effect on her commercial studies, for she is frequently one of our honor students. Besides this she finds time to do her bit for the war effort working Saturday mornings at Binney and Smith. Arlene hopes to become a private secretary in the future.

The Comet

EVELYN MAE MILLER

"Eppie"

"Two hearts that beat as one"—applies to Evelyn and her twin, Betty. New recipes and patterns are "Eppie's" meat because cooking and sewing are her favorite hobbies. Evelyn, a music lover, is one of our snare drummers.

Band 1, 2, 3

KENNETH HARRY MILTENBERGER

"Kenny"

"Kenny," one of our students from Crossroads, will soon be wearing the navy blue. Hunting and fishing are two of his favorite pastimes, but when it comes to lessons, Kenny isn't keen. He's much interested in a certain member of the sophomore class

Track 1, Basketball 1, 2, 3

BARBARA ELIZABETH MUSCLER

"Barbara"

Barbara is one of our chatterboxes who is really quite shy in the presence of any faculty member. She doesn't find school work very interesting, but her ability to play the French horn shows her enjoyment of music. Barbara also enjoys working as student librarian. She hopes someday to become an efficient secretary

Band 1, 2, 3, Student Librarian 3

JAMES SAYLOR NEUMEYER

"Jimmy"

"Oh, that's simple." Yes, it's "Jimmy" trying to bluff his way through chemistry class. This short, plump lad from Stockertown likes P. D. class because he enjoys arguing. He is one of the efficient members of the Comet Business Staff. Even though he goes out for sports, he still finds time to read. After graduation he hopes to join the Navy

Comet, Business Staff 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, Football 3, Forum Club 3, Senior Play, Usher 3, Prom, Entertainment Committee 2

WILLIAM EDWARD NEWAY

"Neway"

Here's the "mischief maker" and one of the class comics who's sure to be the spirit of any party. Neway displayed his dramatic ability as Arthur Van Camp, the villain, in Through the Keyhole. His hobbies are forgetting to do his lessons, sleeping, and chatting with his friends. Perhaps that is why he is frequently in trouble.

Blue and White 3; Senior Play, Major 3; Band Member 2
Basketball 2 3

ERNEST ARLING NICHOLAS

"Ernie"

"Well, I think"—is "Ernie's" way of giving his staunch opinion in P. D. class. As a doodler he specializes in drawings which cover practically all of his papers. Who was the original owner of your blue Bambi, "Ernie"?

PEARL JUNE NOLF

"Pearl"

Here's our modern Diana, only this Diana enjoys both hunting and fishing. This brown-eyed lassie hails from Klecknersville. She is a Blue and White typist and also a member of the Commercial Club. Pearl hopes to become a stenographer, but some chap may change her plans.

Commercial Club 2, 3; Blue and White, Typist 2, 3

BETTY MAE OESSENICK

"Oessenick"

"Wheel! I made it!" It's just "Oessenick's" usual morning rush to get into Room 29 before the door closes. Betty is lively, full of fun, and has a pleasing personality. Her favorite pastimes are ice skating and keeping in touch with the Navy.

Volley Ball 3; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1

The Comet

CHARLES RICHARD O'LEARY

'Deautchie'

Although he is one of the class dreamers, Richard seems to get along all right. "Deautchie" would rather rack up points for the 'Y' varsity than be at home doing his school work. O'Leary has no interest in any particular girl that we know of, but he gets a great pleasure out of teasing all of them.

Basketball 1, 2, 3

ANNA NANCY OSTROWSKI

"Anna"

Anna's humorous nature is known to few, because she is extremely quiet in school. Swish! There she speeds by in her Ford. How about a lift? Business college is on Anna's mind for the future. The typewriter is another of her treasures, for she has done faithful work as typist for the Blue and White.

Blue and White, Typist 3; Volley Ball 2; Hockey 2; Baseball 1; Commercial Club 2, 3

CORINNE MARY OTT

"Ottie"

Sizzling, bubbling, and all of a sudden a terrific explosion our Madame Curie is at work in the Lab. again. To "Ottie", lessons are a lot of trouble, although she does like history and expects to teach it in the future. Corinne is friendly to everyone, and will give anyone a hand any time.

AUSTIN FLOYD PETTY

"Petty"

Tiny but tough describe Petty to a "T". His ability of give a speech or put up a good argument in P. D. class amazes everyone. Outside of this, Petty just manages to keep up with his lessons. Telling jokes is one of his pastimes, for he considers humor the joy of living.

Student Council 2, Bond 1, Forum Club 3, Athletic Association 2, Basketball 1, 2, 3

ROSE MARIE PFEIFFER

"Rose"

Another one of the pairs of senior twins, only this time it's Rose and Agnes. Rose is another of the girls hailing from Both. She takes a decided interest in basketball and is an addition to any team. We hear she's quite interested in the Army. It couldn't be her brother, could it???

Comet, Typist 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, Hockey 2, Volley Ball 1, 2, 3, Basketball 2, 3, Baseball 2, 3, Commercial Club 2, 3, Student Librarian 3

SOPHIE AGNES POLANSKI

"Sophie"

Need a painter? Sophie's just the one for she's always ready and willing when there's operetta scenery to be painted. Her motto seems to be "Don't Give Up the Ship" for, despite her vacation at the hospital, she managed to keep up with her work. Better health and smoother sailing in the future, Sophie.

Blue and White 1, Associate Editor 2, Commercial Club 3

BETTY LORRAINE REESE

"Betty"

"May I help you, please!" says Betty from behind the counter at Murphy's Five and Ten. Always smiling, she goes busily about her work. Saturday and Sunday nights are never lonesome for Betty, because she is never alone. Fun is Betty's middle name and she tries to live up to it.

Dramatic Club 2

The Comet

RACHEL RUTH REICHARD

"Rachel"

Serious and diligent is this lassie from Hacktown. Rachel is one of the "Three Musketeers," for she can usually be seen with Lillian and "Ginny." Rachel is fond of letter writing. Uncle Sam has a wonderful Army, how about it, Rachel?

Senior Play, Usher 3

LEONA JUNE REMEL

"Reds"

Who's the only girl in the senior class with auburn hair? It's Leona. She hails from down Tatamy way. We often wonder what makes "Reds" blush. Maybe it's the reflection from her hair. Most of Leona's spare time is spent pounding on the piano. Ask her anything about music and she knows the answer. "Reds" plans to attend a music school after graduation.

Glee Club 2, 3; A Cappella Choir 3; Volley Ball 1; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 2, 3

AGNES ESTHER RESH

"Aggie"

Tall, dark, and slender is the best description for "Aggie," Rose's twin. She doesn't participate in many school activities, but she is one of Miss Botto's assistant librarians. She takes very little interest in sports, but enjoys music and dancing. She's quite a jitterbug so we hear!

Comet, Typist 3; Dramatic Club 3; Commercial Club 2, 3; Student Librarian 3

DORIS JANE RICE

"Ricie"

'Come on fellows, more pep!' Sounds like "Ricie" trying to spur the team on to victory. She herself is quite adept at sports, especially basketball, and never seems to miss the basket. Studying isn't her idea of having a good time, but she does enjoy dancing. A good all-round sport and a faithful worker, "Ricie" should make an excellent nurse.

BLAINE RAYMOND RODGERS

"Rodgers"

After 3:30 every day and on Saturdays, "Rodgers" can be found in a local grocery store saying, "May I help you, please?" Blaine appears to be bashful at first sight, but once he becomes acquainted, he chatters incessantly. His spare time is divided between sports and a particular freshman.

Science Club 1

MARY ROSKO

"Mary"

Don't be surprised if Mary appears bashful, for she really is. The blush that appears so easily is Mary's one complaint in life. Hockey, volley ball, and Commercial Club account for much of her spare time. Not entirely opposed to the opposite sex, Mary is a good pal to everyone, and is sure to succeed in the commercial world.

Commercial Club 2, 3, Comet, Typist 3; Volley Ball 2, 3, Baseball 1, 2; Hockey 3

LESTER ELMER ROTH

"Les"

Tall, with chestnut-colored hair and brown eyes, describes the outward appearance of Les, but whenever he gets involved in an argument, of which he has many, his make-up changes. Then he will stick to his views and opinions, no matter what they may be and no matter how great the odds. Les, one of the air-minded boys of Nazareth, works in a local grocery store and is an aviation cadet. His ultimate goal is to be an air force pilot.

Basketball 1; Baseball 1; Radio Club 2; Comet, Personality Writer 3

WILSON CALVIN ROTH

"Rothie"

Gang way, for here comes "Rothie" in his Ford. Wilson is the former of our class. 4-H Club and Eleanor keep him quite busy. In 1943 he was awarded the 4-H Club Gold Medal at the Allentown Fair for general livestock judging. Someday he plans to have a dairy farm of his own.

The Comet

BETTY JUNE RULOFF

'Ruloff'

Giggle! Giggle! It's only Betty laughing again. There is never a dull moment when "Ruloff's" around. Her natural wavy hair is the envy of all the girls, especially in damp weather. Betty's chief failing is a shortness of memory which frequently results in coming to shorthand class without her pen filled or without paper. Sailors take most of Betty's time for she is the pin-up girl of a very special "gob." Betty enjoys playing both volley and basketball.

Basketball 1, 2, 3; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Blue and White 2, 3; Student Council 1; Comet Staff, Typist 3

BETTY MAE SANDT

"Betty"

Quiet, dependable, and pleasant that's Betty. Out of school, however, she is an all-round, fun-loving lassie. She has contributed to the Comet as a personality writer. We believe Betty will look very attractive in her white uniform.

MARIAN ELEANOR SCHISLER

"Marian"

Marian is a quiet and studious gal, who takes an interest in horseback riding, dancing, and swimming. Her aim, to keep up the morale of the service men, is to supply them with frequent letters. Her particular interest is in the army.

Dramatic Club 1, 2; Baseball 1; Volley Ball 1

JOHN JOSEPH SCHLAMP

"Schlampie"

Now serving in the armed forces

Here is one of the fellows of our class who entered the Navy during the year. Before leaving, John was one of the mainstays of our football team and was captain of the basketball team. Though he disliked school very much, John was one of the most even tempered persons in the class.

Student Council 1; Basketball 1, Varsity 2, 3; Football 1, Varsity 2, 3; Class Basketball, Coach 1, 2, 3

VIRGINIA BUTZ SCHLEGEL

"Ginny"

This chubby lass is always wearing a happy smile and is ready to burst into giggles at any moment. "Ginny" is a member of the "Write-a-Fighter" Club and she spends most of her time writing, especially to Bill. We hope her ambition, to become a housewife, will someday become a reality.

Volley Ball 1, 3; Baseball 1, 2; Hockey 2, 3; Basketball 2

MURREL HELEN ELSIE SCHMIDT

"Schmidty"

Murrel is lively on her feet and a good dancer. Rough and tough basketball suits her. You will frequently find Murrel engaged in swimming, skating, or horseback riding, because the outdoors is her home. The State of Virginia is in "Schmidty's" eyes for the future.

Basketball 1, 2, 3; Baseball 1, 2; Hockey 2, 3; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3

MILDRED ELIZABETH SEIBOLD

"Mildred"

Here is one of the studious girls of the senior class, whose name frequently appears on the honor roll. Mildred gives one the impression that she is shy, but she is really quite a giggler. Although she is kept busy with her school work and working at Murphy's after school and every Saturday, she always finds time to write to one of Uncle Sam's soldiers.

Volley Ball 1, 2; Baseball 1; Dramatics Club 2

JEAN RUTH SERFASS

"Serfass"

Here's another of our cheerleaders. "Serfass" is fond of sports and especially good in basketball. She is a great lover of swimming and is an assistant Life Guard at the park during the summer. "Serfass," one of the class artists, did art work for the Blue and White. Her heart throb is wearing the Navy Blue.

BETTIE MAE SEYFRIED

"Bettie"

Bettie is one of our quiet and studious gals. She is fond of music and is an excellent pianist. She did her bit for the Comet as a personality writer. Bettie finds time for other things besides writing to that certain chap in the Navy

Magazine Campaign 2, 3, Comet Staff, Personality Writer 3, Baseball 3

ELEANOR MAE SEYFRIED

"Eleanor"

Eleanor hopes to make nursing her career. Her humorous nature and interest in her work should help her in achieving her goal. Although Tatamy is her home town, she lost her heart to a 4-H chap from Maarestown

Craft Club 1, Magazine Campaign 3.

PHYLLIS EDITH MAE SHAFER

"Phyllis"

Phyllis is one of our quiet girls; in fact, she's so quiet that we are not always aware of her presence. Despite her quietness, she is an efficient clerk at Murphy's. Phyllis enjoys dancing very much. After graduating she intends to go to business college.

Hockey 1, Baseball 2, Basketball 2, Volley Ball 2, Glee Club 1

CLAIRE STODT SHANKWEILER

"Claire"

Although Claire is quiet as a mouse in class and always busy in study hall, she lets loose after school and in the gym. Claire takes little part in school activities but she does take pride in her work. Her favorite pastimes are dancing and the movies, but her heart skips a beat when Stockertown is mentioned.

Volley Ball 2, 3; Baseball 2; Commercial Club 2, 3

ANNA SARA SHOOK

"Anna"

Anna, one of our singing triplets, is tall and dark. She seems rather quiet, but she saves her energy for the A Cappella Choir and the Glee Club. In last year's Music Festival, she was one of the trio, and in the Operetta she played Mrs. O'Neal. She tells us she's fond of swimming and dancing. Although Anna is a commercial student, she wants to be a hairdresser after graduation.

Glee Club 1, 2, 3; A Cappella Choir 1, 2, 3; Operetta 1, Major 3; Musical Festival 2

HILDA LILLIAN SHOOK

"Hilda"

Yes, Hilda is the third member of the singing trio that did excellent solo work in last year's Music Festival. Music proves to be one of her chief interests, and she is a member of the A Cappella Choir. Don't let her quietness fool you, for she is quite a card once she's started.

A Cappella Choir 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Operetta 1, Major 3; Music Festival 2

KENNETH NAVARRON SMITH, JR.

"Herbie"

If you can't find him, try either the "Y" or the Army and Navy store where he works. "Herbie" plays basketball for the "Y" Junior Varsity and has done a good job despite his size. Swimming and football, two of his favorite sports, occupy his leisure time. "Women can wait" is his motto, and he seems to be living up to it.

Senior Play, Usher 3; Football, Asst. Mgr. 1; Basketball 1, 2, 3, Track 1; Forum Club 3

WARREN LEE SMITH

"Smitty"

Two minutes before the buzzer! One minute before the buzzer! Will he be late? No, here he comes sauntering in just as the buzzer sounds. Warren has a technique of bluffing all his own, especially in physics class. Bowling and tennis are two of his favorite activities. His main interest has been the Forum Club, in which he usually argues for the minority.

WILLARD EARL SMITH

"Willard"

Zingo! Did you see that? The tall center of our basketball team just scored two more points. As a member of the varsity basketball and football teams, Willard has proved that he's a competent leader as well as an all-round athlete. He takes quite an interest in school, especially chemistry and a certain cheerleader.

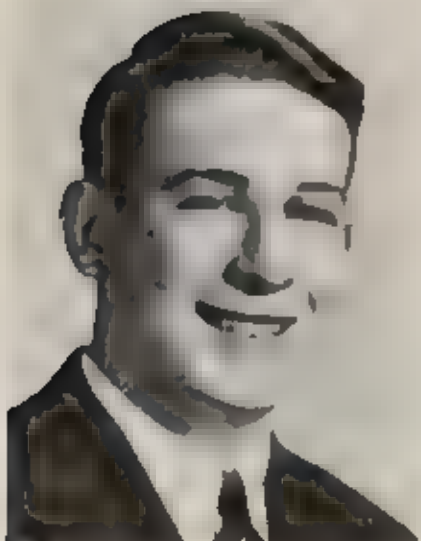

Track, Varsity 1; Basketball 1, Varsity 2, 3; Football, Varsity 2, 3

MILDRED EVELINE STOUT

"Stoudie"

"Stoudie" is especially peppy on the gym floor and very active in sports wherein she finds her greatest pleasure. However, she always finds time to answer Richard's letters. Mildred, a commercial student, has already put some of her training into practice clerking at Murphy's Five and Ten.

Volley Ball 1, 2; Basketball 1, 2; Baseball 1, 2; Dramatic Club 1, 2

ARMOND VICTOR TAVIANI

"Tavy"

If you hear a teacher say, "All right, I'll see you at 3:30," you know "Tavy" is in trouble again. How he gets in so much trouble, no one knows. He is president of the radio club which is one of his main interests. "Tavy" is an ardent airplane fan and is a loyal member of the C. A. P.

AUDREY ALICE TAYLOR

"Taylor"

At first glance Audrey seems rather quiet, but looks are deceiving, for she can usually find something to chatter about. "Taylor" participated in hockey, volley ball, basketball, besides A Cappella Choir and Glee Club. In her spare time she reads, writes letters, and works at Woolworth's at Easton. Her future ambition is to be an office worker.

Glee Club 2, 3; A Cappella Choir 3; Operetta 3; Music Festival 2; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Hockey 2; Basketball 3; Baseball 1, 2, 3

DORIS MAE TEEL

"Doris"

Doris is one of the more quiet members of the class. She not only plays the clarinet in the school band, but is also a member of Earl Held's All-Girl Band. Her interest centers in her commercial subjects, although she always has time to help a friend in need.

Band 1, 2, 3

NEVIN RICHARD TRACH

"Nevie"

Now serving in the armed forces.

Meet one of our fighting "Leathernecks". Nevin was drafted soon after school started. He's greatly missed by his fellow students because of his "laugh and be merry" spirit. Nevin likes the Marines very much and we wish him the best of luck in his chosen career.

LOIS AILEENE TRINE

"Tiny"

Giggle! Giggle! Tiny and her giggles add life to any party. Her jolly disposition has gained her many friends. Tiny's chubbiness frequently makes gym exercises a bit difficult. She takes an interest in school work and served as an efficient typist for the Comet.

Blue and White, Typist 2; Comet, Typist 3; Basketball 3, Baseball 1; Senior Play, Costume Committee 3; Magazine Campaign 1

JOHN GEORGE VASH

"John"

John's one bugaboo in life is lessons; he declares there's just no time to do them. We wonder whether his interest in hunting and other outdoor sports has something to do with this. The marines must hold a special attraction for John, for he expects to become one very soon.

The Comet

LORRAINE MAE VIVIAN

"Vivian"

"Shoot! Vivian, shoot!" yell the girls and boys in the gym when this slight senior is playing basketball. What about the '43 class ring you're wearing? Could it belong to someone from Cherry Hill?

ELWOOD FRANKLIN WARNER

"Elwood"

Tall, dark, and handsome, Elwood finds that his troubles with girls are just as burdensome as are his lessons. Shall we ask "Bratts" about that?? Not only is Elwood interested in football, but he can also hold his own when it comes to swimming and hunting.

Football 2; Basketball, Varsity 3; Radio Club 2

ELIZABETH MAE WARTMAN

"Bratts"

"Oh, yes, haven't you heard?" It's only "Bratts" dispersing information on her daily round of collecting absentee slips. "Bratts" demonstrated her acting and singing ability as the French maid in Through the Keyhole. Besides being a capable and well-liked leader, she did solo work in last year's Music Festival and this year's operetta. She has always enjoyed school, maybe because of someone in room 17.

SHIRLEY MAE WEISS

"Shirley"

Shirley, who enjoys the lighter side of life, takes a keen interest in music and is a clarinet player in our high school band. Her romantic interests lie outside of school, and for this reason she can be seen quite often with a certain blond from East Lawn

Blue and White, Typist 2; Band 1, 2, 3

PAUL CLAYTON WELTY

"Paul"

Meet "George," the handsome young man in Through the Keyhole. Paul is one of our more studious chaps. Besides his school work, he delivers potato chips for the Easton Potato Chip Company after school each day. Even though the girls consider him an A-1 post, all the girls enjoy his teasing.

Class Prophecy

Hop on, everybody! Let's travel with the Comet into the future and see what the members of this year's class are doing.

My, how Nazareth has grown! We'd better go slowly or we'll lose our way.

Ellis Frable has become a teacher of civics in our own Nazareth High School. All of his pupils admire his earnestness.

Barbara Wilken conducts a kindergarten and is frequently helped out by Gladys Werner and Shirley Werkheiser.

Eleanor Becker and Helen Franczak have hired a gymnasium. They hold classes in which they teach young ladies the importance of physical fitness.

Down the street a little way in a double house live Betty Hahn and Violet Hahn. Betty's mail is always being delivered to Violet. (Ernest Nicholas and Kenny Miltenberger are the mail carriers. That explains it.)

Mildred Keefer, Claire Hayne, and Gladys Lahr are happily married. Gladys Cumberland and Rachel Reichard are—unhappily—married.

Domenick Ferraro, Robert Creamer, Blaine Rodgers, Frank Betz and Elwood Warner have organized a "Treat Your Husbands Better, Ladies' Club." Its success is evident in the fewer black eyes the husbands have.

A very select group patronizes Two-Gun Tess' Tea House, owned and operated by Marian Schissler, Murrel Schmidt, and Mildred Siebold. Look! There's Paul Welty just finishing his afternoon snack. He's going over to pay the cashier, Doris Teel.

Barbara Muscler and Betty Ruloff own a flower shop. They have revolutionized the business, selling orchids for fifty cents a dozen.

The Jolly 5 and 10 down at the corner had recently elected a new president, Robert Fulmer. Dominic Daniele is treasurer, in charge of the liquid assets, and Lillian Mackes is head floor walker.

Pauline Hordendorf is giving curls to all via her Polly's Peachy Pixie Shoppe, and next door William Neway operates a large furniture store. He specializes in Lounge-a-While Love Seats.

Journeying eastward we meet James Neumeyer, mayor of the metropolis of Stockertown. His assistant is John Vash. Vernon Happel has been honored by having been appointed chief dog catcher.

Class Prophecy (Continued)

Betty Sandt and Audrey Taylor have opened a large kiddy-car manufacturing company with Virginia Schlegel as their number one saleslady.

Out in the country Evelyn Miller and Betty Houck live together in an old deserted house. Every once in a while a "tee-hee" can be heard. Could it be ghosts?

Joe Heiney has a snake farm in the mountains. The snakes are rapidly increasing in number, and Mr. Heiney is instituting drastic changes in their diet.

Now for a quick trip to New Haven, to old Yale University. Looking through the windows of the social science building, we see Corinne Ott (Dr. Ott) strutting around the classroom, lecturing fervently on social problems.

Over in the science building Prof. A. H. Gaumer is conducting a research involving monkeys and humans for the advancement of biology. His assistant, Austin Petty, is developing a new formula to cause greater growth.

Let's run over to New York. Stephen Keppel is making quite a name for himself at West Point where John Dorozowski is coach of the winning Army team.

Down in the city, Bettie Seyfried and Leona Remel are teaching their protege, Kenny Smith, the fundamentals of Bach, Beethoven, and Boo-Boo Boogie.

A large stenographic agency employs quite a few of our graduates Pearl Nolf, Anna Ostrowski, Mary Rosko, Dorothy Ottinger, Agnes Resh, Phyllis Shafer, Shirley Weiss, Claire Shankweiler, and Lorraine Vivian. Immediately across the hall from their offices are the art studios of Mabel Werkheiser. Her model is Edith Beers.

Samuel Henry, the great mechanical engineer of his day, has at last fulfilled a childhood dream. He has built a bridge across the Atlantic! His Man Friday is Harvey Heckman.

Of all people! There is Richard O'Leary. Pardon us we mean the Right Hon. Mr. C. Richard O'Leary. One never knows what to expect nowadays.

New York City is really ultramodern. Up in the clouds on the 280th floor of the new Empire State Building we find Betty Wartman and Constance Bartholomew. Betty has established a research laboratory and Constance is senior executive of her own super-exclusive advertising agency. In their spare time they present concerts.

At the Metropolitan, Virginia Lehr is singing Gilda in "Rigoletto." Eleanor Knecht is her wardrobe designer and Mildred Stoudt is official curtain puller.

Guess we've seen enough in New York so we'll turn the Comet southward. Congresswoman Saphie Polanski has used her influence to establish a complete clinic. The administrative officer is Stanley Hahn, while Marian Alich is the supervisor. Dr. Jean Wunderly has charge of the maternity ward and all the babies are cared for by Betty Gold. Betty

The Comet

Class Prophecy (Continued)

Reese heads the children's ward, Jean Serfass cares for the adults, and the osteopathic ward is in charge of Betty Oessenick. Frequently charity balls are organized by Betty Worman, wife of a well-known politician.

Juanitia LeVan and Doris Walters, who left for our capital in 1944, are still happily working with the F. B. I.

John Landon has recently been appointed Attorney-General. Could the president still be Roosevelt ? ? ?

Ruby Hough and her famous athlete husband, Willard Smith, are starting on a tour of the world's capitals. Arlene Miller and Pearl Butz take down all his speeches in shorthand.

Warren Smith is now lecturing in Richmond and in his spare time runs an undertaking service. He has made his fortune writing stories centering around "Uncle Watson." His efficient secretary is Jacqueline Bealer.

Victoria Marsh is a teacher of commercial studies at the Round Tower High School.

It seems that Marjorie Griffin has traded her name for that of a rich tobacco and cotton magnate. She is now sitting in the garden of their expansive plantation, surrounded by little blondes.

Robert Krieger, aside from his owning a large business concern, has taken to writing short verses about moonlight, roses, and the girls he left behind.

Robert Hertzog, Wilson Roth, Robert Berger, and Donald Hocking are partners in the Moo-Moo Milk Company Incorporated. However, Eleanor Seyfried really runs the business.

Frank Marositz and Charles Marth groom the famous Kentucky Derby horses.

Down in Florida we discover that Susan Young has become a lawyer, specializing in quick divorces. She has just had two cases one involving Henry Wythoskie and his third wife and the other between Admiral and Mrs. Davy Jones. She was the former Doris Rice.

Russell Lerch lives in Texas. He is head of the game preserves of the 48 states. His hobby was profitable indeed!

Flash! Wilson Buck has won the chess championship of Earth and Mars!

LaRue Bath and Hilda and Anna Shook are the tune crooners of the generation. The orchestra which accompanies them is led by Maestro Richard Yeisley.

Out in Hollywood Marjorie Long and Rose Pfeiffer are script girls at the same studio where Georgene Cowling is a leading lady.

Bettie Kern is the model for the make-up artists who have selected her "Miss Face-Up Girl" of 192.

Oops! there go Roy Buralli and Ray Bartholomew. They're traveling around the country in their 200 m. p. h. Fordmobile.

Shelton Keller is the best first baseman the Cardinals have ever had. He catches everything. Even fights with his wife. You remember, she graduated in '45.

Armond Taviani and Lester Roth are aviators. They recently flew around the world in two hours.

Guess we'll have to be turning homeward. We've covered a lot of territory. See you again in the future.

Class Legacy

We, the class of 1944, being of insane mind and unsound body, draw up our last will and testament. In doing this great service, we leave our most precious possessions with our school associates whom we so sorrowfully leave behind.

I, Marian Alich, bequeath my bottle of Jergen's to Richard Keppel. It's for softer hands, Bismarck.

I, Constance Bartholomew, bequeath my bowling scores to Jack Kennedy. You start by sitting down.

I, Ray Bartholomew, bequeath my bulk to Don Wilkinson. That means decrease.

I, Edith Beers, bequeath my hair to Jean Gold. It's yours to comb, Jean.

I, Robert Berger, bequeath my—; I'd better keep it. Sorry, juniors.

I, Wilson Buck, bequeath my chess playing abilities to Donald Burley. The pawns move only forward, Burley.

I, Domenick Ferraro, bequeath my exquisite African "golfers" to Harold Frable. Fore!

I, Ellis Frable, bequeath my love of hard work to Ray Smith. Don't let it kill you, Smitty.

I, Robert Fulmer, bequeath my car to Emery Engler. Hope it's big enough for the gang.

I, Albert Gaumer, bequeath my ambitious stride to Billy Hoskins. May you get there on time.

I, Marjorie Griffin, bequeath my hard-to-get hair curlers to Francis Flick. You'll love curly black hair, Flicky!

I, Betty Gold, bequeath my pugnacious tendencies to Betty Karch. More spunk to you.

I, Joseph Heiney, give my snake charming abilities to Mr. J. Frederic Knecht. More discussion material, Mr. Knecht.

I, Samuel Henry, bequeath my mathematical mind to Shirley Sundberg. Maybe you'll be able to pass chemistry, Sunny.

I, Betty Houck, bequeath my giggle to Verna Rohrbach. Smile, Verna, smile.

I, Shelton Keller, bequeath my ability in baseball playing to the future teams. Play ball!

I, John Landon, bequeath my love of speaking to Jennie Engler. Speak up, Jennie, even if you aren't right. John does, too.

I, Virginia Lehr, bequeath my faithfulness to Shirley Fortun. Don't get bored, Shirley.

I, James Neumeyer, give my love of an argument to Vincent Paukowitch. Grrrrr!

I, Rose Pfeiffer, bequeath my voice to Lester Scott. Meekness is a virtue.

I, Robert Krieger, bequeath my shyness to Forrest Noll. On him it looks nice.

I, Leona Remel, bequeath my auburn hair to Gordon Arnold. Curly red hair looks nice.

I, Agnes Resh, bequeath my extra lipstick to Donald Rader. Sunrise on the mouth.

I, Doris Rice, bequeath my cheerleading ability to William Kessler. Give him the axe, General! Guess who? ? ?

I, William Neway, bequeath my wolfing technique to William Schultz, Arf! Arf!

I, Kenny Miltenberger, bequeath MY technique to any guy who needs one. Yes. Yes.

I, Richard O'Leary, bequeath my yellow-stained hands to Mr. Wunderly. Where there's smoke, there's fire.

I, Corinne Ott, bequeath my short hair to Eunice Rudge. Cooler days before you, Rudgie.

I, Austin Petty, give my size to James Day. You'll be closer to earth, Jim.

I, Lester Roth, bequeath my helpful suggestions in English class to Mark Parseghian. Miss Sloat will appreciate this.

I, Blaine Rodgers, give my affection to John Petraglia. It's really wonderful.

I, Phyllis Shafer, bequeath my quietness to Jackie Andrews. No more hee haws.

I, Bettie Seyfried, bequeath all future engagement rings to members of the feminine sex. Put in your bids, fellas.

I, Warren Smith, bequeath my teasing ability to G. Franklin Storer. Faculty on guard.

I, Armond Taviani, give my monkeyshines to Floyd Schlegel. Poor Floyd.!

I, Lois Trine, bequeath my gift of gab to Frank Alich. Citizenship: minus.

I, Doris Walters, bequeath my hair styles to Frieda Sandt. That's a nice upsweep, Doris.

I, Elizabeth Wartman, bequeath my boisterousness to Jane Bunn. Dignity must descend.

Class Legacy (Continued)

I, Paul Welty, bequeath my "potato chip concession" to Dotty Jane Swavely. 36 to a pound, Dotty (not including salt.)
I, Betty Worman, give the Marines back to Uncle Sam. Now we can win the war.
I, Jean Wunderly, bequeath my cockiness to Thomas Jones. Eureka! Now you've got something!
I, Henry Wyjhoskie, bequeath my flashy clothes to Robert Smith. Then you'll shine even in the dark.
I, Richard Yeisley, bequeath my wonderful laugh to anyone foolish enough to want it.
I, LaRue Bath, bequeath my silk stockings to Frieda Sandt. Socks aren't sophisticated.
I, Jacqueline Bealer, give my personality to Fred Hooper. Hip, hip, hooray!
I, Georgene Cowling, bequeath my sneezes to anybody but Miss Sloat. (Unless the building is soundproofed)
I, Robert Croemer, bequeath my excuse making abilities to Elton Blake. Sputter no more
I, John Dorozowski, bequeath my checked trousers to Hunter Frey. Start swimming!
I, Harvey Heckman, bequeath my plaid shirts to Donald Markle. They look splashy.
I, Ruby Hough, bequeath my shorthand ability to Irene Phillips.
I, Vernon Happel, bequeath my line ("Say, honest") to the bashful buddies of '45 if any.
I, Roy Buralli, bequeath my great driving ability to Jobby Williams. Take the wheel.
I, Stephen Keppel, bequeath my flashy bow ties to all the girls. "Beau" ties!
I, Bettie Kern, bequeath my ability to sell bonds and stamps to next year's sellers.
I, Russell Lerch, bequeath my love of nature to Jean Yeisley. Chirp, Chirp.
I, Juanitia LeVan, bequeath my fickleness to those who are tired of faithfulness. Variety is the spice of life.
I, Marjorie Long, bequeath my neatness to Ruth Leiby. Trimness counts.
I, Dorothy Ottinger, bequeath my checkered skirt to anyone with checkers. Your Move!
I, John Schlamp, bequeath my blue eyes to dark eyed Romeos. Clark Gable, beware!
I, Jean Serfass, bequeath my brand new glasses to Frankie Kondikoff. The fog lifts.
I, Pearl Nolf, bequeath my understanding to John Ziegler. Peace be with the teachers.
I, Willard Smith, bequeath my stature to Walter Salt. Baskets come even easier then.
I, John Vash, bequeath my love of trouble to Donald Markle. Only bus at 3:30.
I, Elwood Warner, bequeath my motorcycle to boys interested in the complicated mass
I, Shirley Weiss, bequeath my clarinet to Mr. Weinhofer's collection of instruments.
Toot, toot!
I, Gladys Werner, bequeath my typing ability to typists of '45 s Comet No errors, please
I, Elizabeth Wilken, bequeath my patience to Teddy Brobst. Fidgeting days are over.
I, Susan Young, bequeath my executive talents to Richard Hawk. Don't forget the pitcher of water.
I, Donald Hocking, bequeath my nickname to Basil Thompson. Grunt, grunt!
I, Eleanor Knecht, bequeath my seriousness to Kathleen Shotwell. From the ridiculous to the sublime.
I, Murrel Schmidt, bequeath my power to Marion Gaumer. Atlas and Hercules had it too.
I, Helen Franczak, bequeath my cooperativeness to Naomi Koch. We mean everybody
I, Victoria Marsh, bequeath my ability to write poetry to Katherine Gum. The Blue and White needs it.
I, Charles Morth, bequeath my Wise Crackers to Lorraine Florey.

These, our contributions to the welfare of future classes of our Alma Mater, are given with the utmost regard to personal needs and well-being.

Signed

P. S. Jokes are jokes; so don't be mad.
If you've been mentioned, don't be sad.
It's all in fun—come on and smile
And say you knew it all the while.

Student Council

The Student Council, which represents the student body of Nazareth Senior High School consists of nine members—a boy and girl elected from each class and the three class presidents. Miss Florence L. Nicholas is the adviser.

The Student Council, by selling refreshments at football and basketball games and holding auctions, was able to sponsor three enjoyable parties—Thanksgiving, Valentine, and Leap Year. Among the Council activities are a lost and found department, a college catalogue library, and a committee to report on the condition of the building. Besides this, two members each semester helped in the selection of assembly programs.

The Comet

Prom

A large silver moon and innumerable twinkling stars shown down on showers of midnight blue and white crepe paper forming a canopy for happy dancers at the annual Junior-Senior Prom in the gym on May 12. The mood of the orchestral melodies coupled with the girls' colorful flowing gowns blended into this background, making an ideal Star-light Dance.

For those not dancing, there were games, including Chinese Checkers and parchesi. At intermission the groups entered the lunch room to enjoy the delicious refreshments served on tables bedecked with spring flowers and tall blue and white candles.

The Prom Committees

Decorating Committee: Dorothy Schlegel, chairlady; Theodora Brabst; Gloria Rahn; Robert Searles; Mark Parseghian; Gloria Feldman, Pauline Leh; Irene Phillips; Betty Lou Jacobs, Don Wilkinson; Jane Bunn.

Refreshment Committee: Dorothea Swavely, chairlady; Pete Sevi; Frank Alich, Charles Skrapits; Donald Rader; Pauline Schoeneberger; Margaret Rohn; Shirley Fortuin.

Entertainment Committee: Jacquelyn Andrews, chairlady; Verna Rohrbach; Louise Way; Kenneth Florey, Vincent Paukowitch; Donald Hahn.

Faculty Adviser: Mrs. Ralph Metz.

Social Activities

To the delight of Nazareth High students, in addition to our annual Thanksgiving Party, the Student Council sponsored a Valentine and a Leap Year Party.

On the evening of November 19, the gym was colorfully decorated with yellow corn husks and other traditional autumnal foliage for the Thanksgiving Dance. Approximately 300 guests attended this first enjoyable party.

Valentine Day came around with hearts, and arrows, and love. On the 16th of February bright red cupids and big red hearts carried out the color scheme. Again dancing to the Nomad's music was enjoyed by those who preferred it, while games were provided for others.

As an added attraction, the Student Council held an appropriate Leap Year's Dance. The decorations were wild flowers which were spring-like and put everyone in a joyous mood.

Lining up for refreshments was the highlight of all three events. At eleven o'clock all faces turned homeward, tired but happy with the last strains of music echoing in their ears.

Basketball

In the early part of the season, Nazareth High celebrated a victory over Palmerton. But the fact that only two lettermen returned proved to be too much to overcome, and so the team ended the season with total scores of 516 against opponents' 616.

The record for the season was six victories and twelve losses.

Football

Since June 1943, Uncle Sam cleaned out Nazareth High's entire backfield, leaving Coach Leh and Assistant Coach Bartolet with only five lettermen. These, in addition to many inexperienced lads, formed a determined team, accounting for the close scores in league games and winning of others.

Injuries greatly hampered the squad during November. The results of the season were six losses and three victories.

Our Cheerleaders

"Come on, gang. Put a little pep into the next one!" This is the favorite cry of our cheerleaders who did a good job in arousing enthusiasm at our football and basketball games during the year.

The Comet

Hockey

With the clashing of sticks and the shouts of the players, the hockey season began. Although there were only three hockey teams, vigorous playing prevailed.

Wunderly's team was victorious.

NATURE'S CALL

I love the winds that take away my breath
And send it back in sudden bursts of air—
And then, I love a flaming outdoor fire
At whose dancing pictures I can stare.

I love the bursts of young and happy spring—
The budding leaves, the blooming flowers
And yet I love the summer sun
Beneath whose rays I lie for hours.

I love the raindrops coming down
From clouds so filmy, soft, and white
But best of all, I think I love
The crickets call at night.

Shirley Werkheiser

HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED?

Have you ever wondered
While sitting by a brook
If the brook is really talking?
If it likes its shady nook?
If it knows where it is going?
If it minds the fisherman's hook?

These are things you cannot find
In anybody's book.

Constance Bartholomew

OSCAR, OUR EDUCATED MOUSE

While perched upon the basket's rim
'Most every Friday night
Oscar watched our basketball
With squeeks of great delight.

He went with all the juniors
So happy and so gay
And watched them at their junior prom
Swirl, and dip, and sway.

At noon he nibbled on the food
Left by the girls and boys
At night he went to Forum Club
And practiced speaking poise.

Then on Commencement Day he sat
And shed his tears of woe
For even though he can stay here
His favorite class must go.

DO YOU KNOW

The first Comet was published in 1920.

The smallest class to graduate from N. H. S. was in 1900 with 2 students; the largest class in 1942 with 147 students.

This year's graduating class has 24 academic, 40 general, and 51 commercial students

Of the 436 students in senior high school, 258 are out-of-towners.

The N. H. S. football team is now known as The Blue Eagles.

The high school trophy case contains 19 football, baseball, basketball, and track trophies.

Lorraine Vivian is the high girl basketball scorer with 194 points to her credit, Willard Smith the high boy scorer with 156 points.

The youngest senior girl is Hilda Shook; the boy is Paul Welty.

The most frequent girl on the high honor roll was Constance Bartholomew; the boy was Ellis Frable.

The high school library has 5345 books, 53 paid subscription magazines, and two metropolitan newspapers.

Approximately 305 students visit the library daily.

Eight members of the high school faculty are attending Saturday or evening classes.

Seven high school faculty members hold the degree of Master of Arts or Science.

In zero weather it takes between four and five tons of coal daily to heat the high school building.

The total amount of Bond and Stamp Sales is $43,519.35 to date (April 3).

There are 4037 panes of glass in windows and doors in the high school building.

?????

GLÜCKLICHE DREIZEHN

(Dedicated to Mr. Wunderly)

Into Room 13 on a dreary day
Way back in forty-one,
A group of hapless students came --
Who thought of having fun.

But no! it wasn't fun they got,
The teacher saw to that!
They struggled then through Caesar's wars
In a Language known as "Lat."

With '42, a brighter year,
Came German and its woes,
"Decline this noun, and get it right
Come on, get on your toes."

As seniors, they thought they'd blossom forth,
There's nothing to worry or fret;
But along came synopses and passive voice,
It wasn't the easiest bet.

Advertising

In the earliest times traders and merchants made themselves known and drew attention to their products by hiring public criers, who wandered through the streets shouting about their wares.

Thomas Lipton actually dressed up pigs and paraded them through the streets of Glasgow to advertise his ham and bacon business. Later another unique advertising scheme used by Lipton was to have great tea cases thrown into the ocean to float where steamer passengers would glimpse "Lipton's Teas" bobbing on the water.

Later, business men learned that newspapers, books, and magazines offered another opening for advertising. By inviting attention and winning interest in their products, sales and profits skyrocketed.

The following pages of our Comet serve as "Your Public Crier of 1944," for it is often said:

*The man who on his trade relies
Must either bust or advertise.*

Is there a Formula for Success?

Why do some forge ahead, while others get nowhere?

We doubt if there is a formula that would make success sure. But there is a "success system" that seems to work time and again.

It is this: 1. Set a goal; 2. Strive steadily toward it; 3. Put part of your wages in a bank account each pay day so that you will be ready for opportunity when it comes.
